NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

"What Isaiah dreams of here (Is 2:2-3), therefore, is the coming together of all the scattered tribes of Israel, indeed the world, around the worship of the true God...Having found friendship with God, Isaiah implies (Is 2:3-4), human beings will rediscover friendship with one another, and they will not feel the need to train for war anymore. (p. 11) In Isaiah's vision (Is 25:6), the gathered community is fed by a gracious God with the finest foods, calling to mind the situation in the Garden of Eden before the eating and drinking was interrupted by a grasp at godliness." (p. 12) One of the principal desires of Yahweh was to reestablish the sacred meal, to restore the community and fellowship lost through sin... This open-table fellowship was not simply a challenge to the societal status quo, but also an expression of God's deepest intentions vis-a-vis the human race, the realization of Isaiah's eschatological dream. In fact, very often, Jesus' profoundest teachings took place at table, calling to mind Isaiah's holy mountain where a festive meal would be spread out and where "instruction" would go forth.

Did you know? You can give using your collection envelope at any of Father Don's parishes (St. Nicholas or St. Anne's in Kimball) and also at St. Anthony's and your envelope will be forwarded back to Assumption.
